Off to the war he went one day, My bon-nie lad - die my sol-dier hold: His Pure gold is he with out al - loy My bon-nie lad - die, my sol-dier bold. His worth to his coun - try so they say Is more than un - told gold. And mer - ry voice and smile I miss Life seems all grey and cold; Bright ma - ny boys so true and brave Shall fill a sol - dier's grave, But eyes he loved are dim with tears For him, how my heart doth yearn; And my true love home to me shall come With trum-pet and with drum.

 ev-'ry night and ev-'ry day I'll pray for his re-turn.

Chorus

He marched a-way one sum-mer day, The band did play a tune so gay, The flags were fly-ing But my heart was cry-ing

Come back my sol-dier boy.
